2024 ASTMH/BMGF Travel Award Recipients (not all recipients present)

Table of Contents

- 2 Overview
- 3 Important Dates
- 4 Application Instructions and Requirements
- 5 Helpful Hints

OVERVIEW

Who is Eligible?

- All ASTMH members and nonmembers. Previous ASTMH travel awardees are not eligible.
- Non-U.S. citizens from Africa, Asia and Latin America are strongly encouraged to apply.

Selection Criteria

Awardees will be selected by the Travel Award Committee based on abstract quality, research results and the relevance of applicant's work to the field of tropical medicine. Award recipients participate in the meeting through oral or poster presentations. Notifications will be sent in July 2025.

Final Report

Awardees are required to submit a maximum two-page report within 30 days of the Annual Meeting outlining their meeting experience with respect to learning opportunities and professional development. Reports should be submitted to Rhonda Schultz, Manager, Board and Fellowships, rschultz@astmh.org.

Application Process and Deadlines

This application process consists of two parts:

Part 1: Complete the Travel Award application here by April 11, 2025.

Part 2: Check our website for information regarding abstract submission.

APPLICATION DEADLINE APRIL 11, 2025

Award Notification

Applicants will be notified of Travel Award decisions in July. Once notifications are issued, recipients will receive additional information regarding travel to/from the Annual Meeting. Award recipients participate in the meeting through oral or poster presentations. The Travel Award must be used in the year that it is received. If the recipient is unable to attend the Annual Meeting, the Travel Award must be forfeited. The recipient may reapply in a subsequent year.

Non-U.S. citizens receiving a Travel Award will be responsible for:

- Securing a passport that will remain valid for at least six months after the planned return travel date. For most award recipients this date will be June 2026.
- Contacting the Canadian government office in their country of residence to arrange for all necessary travel documents (e.g., travel visas).

The American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (ASTMH) offers Travel Awards to qualified students, early-career investigators and scientists actively working in the tropical medicine field to attend the Society's Annual Meeting. These awards facilitate participation for those who might not otherwise be able to attend. Selected recipients will enhance the overall scientific quality and learning potential of the meeting through their oral and poster presentations.

ASTMH thanks the Gates Foundation for their continued generous support of the ASTMH Travel Awards.

ASTMH
Inclusion/Respect Statement

The ASTMH is an international society committed to equity and global impact through the treatment and prevention of tropical infectious diseases. Our diverse membership comes from more than 115 countries and engages with an enormous array of infectious diseases, cultures, ethnicities, and countries. We come from academia, research institutes, implementation programs, industry, multilateral organizations, foundations, and governments, gathering annually to exchange data, share learning, and honor contributions from the field and the lab.

As a Society, we are committed to the open exchange of ideas, freedom of thought and expression, and productive scientific debate that are central to our mission. These require an open and diverse environment that is built on dignity and mutual respect for all members, participants, and staff, free of discrimination based on personal attributes including but not limited to ethnicity, color, national origin, age, religion, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation, gender, and gender identity or expression. We affirm the key principles of inclusion, diversity, and respect for all people. In a world of rich diversity, the advancement of science depends on the intellectual breadth and depth of a diverse ASTMH, one that informs and enriches the shape and content of scientific discourse. These principles guide the actions of ASTMH's leaders, members, and staff in advancing the goals of the Society.

Information needed to complete the application:

1. Information from applicant's curriculum vitae or resume
2. Statement explaining why applicant wants to attend the ASTMH meeting (limit 2,000 characters)
3. Abstract describing applicant's research
4. Travel information, including
  - a. estimated round-trip travel costs to and from the meeting site
  - b. city and airport where travel will originate
  - c. mode of travel (air, car, bus, etc.)

Application Checklist

- Submit ABSTRACT to the abstract submission site here
- Submit abstract fee of $55 US by credit card via the abstract submission site (or make payment by check or bank transfer to be received by ASTMH by April 11)

ASTMH
Values and Promotes Diversity

The Society takes great pride in its diverse membership. Through its elected and appointed leaders, committee structure, awardees, Annual Meeting presenters, etc., ASTMH strongly encourages diversity with regard to gender, race/ethnicity, country, and organization (including academia, governmental and non-governmental institutions, and for-profit companies).

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Gather all application materials prior to online submission. Although it is possible to edit the Travel Award application prior to the March 26 deadline, the submission process will be more efficient if the complete application is posted in one session.

There are two parts to the award application:

Part 1: TRAVEL AWARD application

Part 2: ABSTRACT submission – which requires a description of research and complete author information

Part 1: TRAVEL AWARD application available here on February 26.

The first step is to submit the TRAVEL AWARD application. All TRAVEL AWARD applications must be completed by April 11 in order to be considered.

- For applicants who plan to submit more than one abstract for consideration for presentation at the Annual Meeting, select only one abstract to include in the Travel Award application.
- Applicants submitting an abstract must be the presenting author.

Part 2: ABSTRACT submission available here.

Abstracts must be submitted through the ABSTRACT submission site.

The ABSTRACT submission site will assign an abstract number using the general format 25-A-NUMBER-ASTMH (25-A-1234-ASTMH) – take note of this abstract number. Applicants will need this abstract number for the TRAVEL AWARD application site.

Please note a $55 US submission fee is required. To apply for a Travel Award, the abstract and fee must be submitted by April 11. If the abstract fee is not paid by April 11, the application will not be considered for review.

Only abstracts submitted to the ABSTRACT submission site will be considered. If multiple applicants submit the same abstract as part of their application, the applications will not be considered for funding.

Networking was a key component of the conference, and I was fortunate to connect with several professionals working in malaria research.

IMPORTANT!

- The Travel Award must be used in the year that it is received. If the recipient is unable to attend the Annual Meeting, the Travel Award must be forfeited. The recipient may reapply in a subsequent year.
- Travel Award funds provided by ASTMH must be used to support travel, lodging and other expenses directly associated with participating in the Annual Meeting.
- The Travel Award requires attending the entire Annual Meeting from Sunday, November 9 through Thursday, November 13.
- All paid abstracts submitted to the abstract submission site as part of a Travel Award application will be automatically reviewed by the Scientific Program Committee.
- Abstracts accepted for presentation will be printed in the Abstract Book and meeting app.
- If an applicant does not receive a Travel Award, the submitted abstract may still be accepted for presentation via the Scientific Program Committee review process. If accepted, the abstract will be printed in the Abstract Book and meeting app.
- Abstract withdrawals cannot be removed from the Abstract Book.
